AN ACT

To AMEND SECTION 32 OF CHAPTER 44 OF THE LAWS OF 1882. RELATING TO THE SEIZURE OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom Assembled:

SECTION 1. That Section 32 of Chapter 44 of the Laws of 1882 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 32. Any District or Police Justice, the Marshal, his Deputy, or any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff or Constable may, without warrant, seize and take away all such spirituous liquor as he shall have reasonable cause to suspect is carried about for sale or to be exposed or offered for sale in any highway or foot path, or in any booth, tent, store or shed, or in any other place whatever, by any person not licensed to sell the same, and all vessels and utensils used for containing, drinking or measuring the same. And such Justice, on proof of such offence may convict any person so offending and may thereupon sentence such offender to pay a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars, and not less than fifty dollars, and to imprisonment at hard labor for any term not more than six months and not less than one month, and onehalf of the fine shall be paid to the party who gave the information which led to such conviction, and such Justice shall upon such conviction adjudge such spirituous liquor, and the vessels and utensils used for containing, drinking, or measuring the same, to be forfeited and may direct the same to be sold on account of the Hawaiian Government. Provided, however, that in all cases where such liquor is seized while being carried on the way from one place to another, the burden of proving that such liquor was not carried for sale or to be exposed or offered for sale, shall be upon the person or persons owning or claiming the same.'
